Audit Checks

Unreasonable Amount Default Threshold Configuration

Overview

The Unreasonable Amount check uses benchmark data to determine if a meal is unreasonable within a specified region, based on a global threshold established by the customer. Customers enabling the Unreasonable Amount check can now apply a best practice configuration for the recommended percentage to determine the threshold.

BUSINESS PURPOSE / CLIENT BENEFIT

This capability helps to reduce the risk of Unreasonable Amount events occurring in large numbers for lower expense amounts.

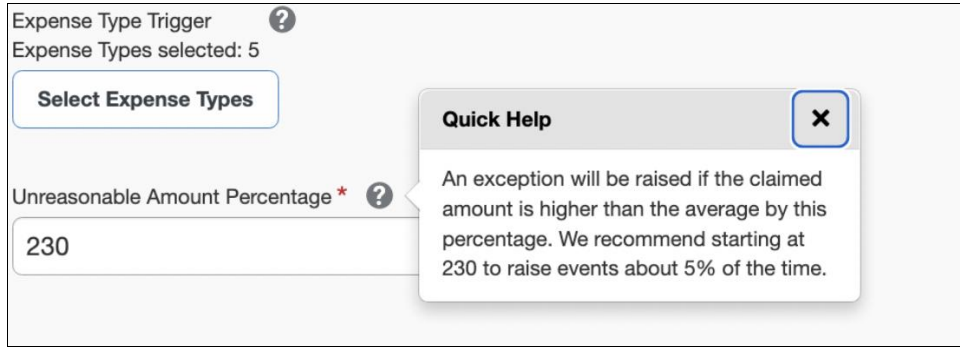

What the User Sees

Verify Administrators will now see a default value in the unreasonable amount percentage field set to 230% as the initial default. A quick help text value has also been updated to reflect the new default.

Example: Unreasonable Amount Percentage

The screenshot shows a configuration field with the label "Unreasonable Amount Percentage" followed by a red asterisk and a question mark icon. Below the label is a text input field containing the number "230".

Configuration / Feature Activation

For existing customers, if the Unreasonable Amount check is already enabled, you can review the new recommended default threshold.
