Standard Edition languages are activated based on country packs. Users may change their language at the login page, but some content would not be displayed as translated unless a relevant country pack is active. For example, a Standard customer would see the UI in Italian if the Italy country pack is active.

E = ExpenseIt optimized to recognize receipts in these markets.